

Karl's impression

steur 13/5/65

Not exactly a photograph, not a painting either, but an impression of Spain made by an unusual process. Mr. Karl de Haan, an artist and photographer who came from Holland to settle in Johannesburg, is seen here with one of the prints for his Spanish exhibition, now on at the Gallery 101.

He painted his windmill on celluloid then made the print.